UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

The Cincinnati "Reformer" is a sawdusty goody goody rascal. Nearly everybody remembers the bust-up of Archbishop Prendergast and the debt of $4,000,000 which he owed poor workmen and servant girls who had trusted their money with him; and they remember how one JOHN B. MAXWELL, who was appointed Trustee of the Archbishop, collected some hundreds of thousands of this money and used it himself; and they will no doubt be pleased to learn further that the Hon. GUSTAV TAPPEL, the present goody goody "Reformer" Mayor of Cincinnati, and the Hon. ISAAC J. MILLER, one of the goody goody members of the "Reform" Public Affairs of Cincinnati, have gotten away with $14,753.75 of the hard earnings of the poor servant girls and poor workmen which had been loaned to the Archbishop. "Reform" is a cloak for rascality.

Aside from the serious inconvenience and pain caused by it, there is a tendency to stasis and to cancer in the rectal region. Piles should not be allowed to run on unchecked. Take the Buckeye Pile Ointment as an infallible remedy. Price, 50 cents a bottle, tubes 25 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

The 10,000 Indians, Cherokees, Creeks and Delaware, who have voluntarily gone from Oklahoma to Mexico to establish a reservation, declare they are actuated by a desire to get as far away as possible from the white man's civilization. They have about $25,000 and expect further additions after they have organized their settlement.

Visitors Who Were Very Much Pleased With the Late Street Fair.

Jessamine Journal.

A BIG SUCCESS.

The Street Fair held at Maysville three days and last week brought to that place of 15,000 inhabitants the largest gathering in the history of the city. The attractions were first-class, all of which were free. People came from adjoining counties and it is safe to say Maysville reaped a bountiful harvest financially. The thousands of people who gathered each day were a great surprise to the business men, and the "moss backs" who opposed the enterprise were loud in their approval of the movement before its close and were free to say they wanted it repeated in September.

One of the chief attractions was wedding the couple being married on one of the most prominent thoroughfares, standing up in large platform and in the presence of 7,000 people. The presents which were donated to the wedding couple by the business firms of Maysville, were very numerous and attractive. When the preacher pronounced the exalted couple for matrimony "husband and wife," the hand struck up the familiar air, "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," which was received with a tremendous applause by the spectators. This enterprise was gotten up by two of Maysville's most enterprising young business men, John I. Winter and H. B. Owens, who are business from the new school of "making a town go, and putting the old fogies on easy street that they may be surrounded by cobwebs and green moss." Such progressive men as Winter and Owens are what Kentucky towns need. W. H. Freeman, who assisted the committee, is getting up those fairs all over the state and his program is well carried out. Messrs. Harry Klein and J. B. Stearns, who went to Maysville as delegates from the Commercial Club at Maysville, bring back good tidings to the merchants, and in their report before the Commercial Club will show that a Street Fair means a big crowd and a large revenue generally to the town.

KENTUCKY FLASHES.

SOME CITIZENS DISPLEASED.

The State Troops are in camp near the Courthouse at Manchester—The Court Commenced Monday.

MANCHESTER, Ky., June 5.—Col. Roger D. Williams, with a portion of Companies C, L and M, 1st regiment, Kentucky state guards, arrived here from London Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The men had rested for dinner at Bush, the half-way stop in the 24-mile journey. The soldiers were none the worse for their trip over the muddy road in jolt wagons, and fell to work with a vim to get the tents pitched before nightfall. They are comfortably situated near the courthouse and close to the big spring. Some of the county officers claim to be able to take care of their courts and were not pleased at the coming of the soldiers.

Judge Eversole and a number of attorneys arrived Sunday night. Court convened Monday morning, but it will be a day or two before the Tom Baker case is reached. It will be necessary to send troops to his home, 12 miles from here, to bring him in.

Whisky Deal Closed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 5.—The deal for the immense whisky holdings of John M. Atherton & Co., of this city, and for the holdings of the Marion County Distilling Co. was closed Sunday by the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse Co. Mr. Atherton refused to state the consideration involved. It is known, however, that his holdings brought nearly $1,000,000. The consideration involved in the same kind of a deal with the Marion County Distilling Co. is not known.

Park and West were fired on from ambush, but escaped unhurt.

The wound is pronounced to be serious. Reuben Frazier and his father were arrested.

In a Berry Patch.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 5.—Forty-two colored orphans will be turned loose two hours in the largest strawberry patch in the county Monday afternoon. The market is glutted with the berries and the grower wants to get rid of his crop as small a loss as possible.
